

CHRISTMAS BINGO

Players: 2+

Materials:

- Writing utensil or card markers
- Fillable bingo cards

How to Play:

1. Gather your group together, pick the category, and fill in the cards. Make sure everyone is putting their items in different orders. We've provided enough suggestions to fill a card, but your players can come up with their own items as well!
2. Each topic has its own means of play, so pick the activity that works best for your group.
 - a. Christmas decorations: Travel around your neighborhood and mark off the items that you see.
 - b. Christmas movie: Put on a random movie and mark off the tropes as they happen.
 - c. Christmas music: Put on your favorite Christmas radio station or set your favorite playlist on shuffle and mark off the songs that come on.
3. There are a few ways to score bingo depending on how long you want the game to last. For a shorter game, play until the first person gets a bingo (a straight row, column, or diagonal of five marked items). For extended games, you can play for a set amount of time and score based on the number of bingos each person got, or play until someone has a blackout (a filled card).
