

CHRISTMAS MAD LIBS

For Christmas this year, the whole family came to _____ house. person name

We all brought a lot of _____, so our hands were full! Uncle Jimmy plural noun brought his _____ animal _____, and they _____ all number verb the presents. They thought the presents were _____! Before dinner, noun

we all _____ in the living room, and Grandma _____ verb verb the presents from under the _____. The Christmas tree was so

noun

_____ , and all the _____ holiday décor looked so _____. Even adjective adjective the lights were _____! We all _____ our gifts, and everyone adjective verb got _____ gifts. Some gifts were _____, and some were number adjective

_____ . _____ got a _____, and _____ adjective boy's name present girl's name got a _____. We were all _____ with our gifts! present emotion

After we opened our presents, we _____ to the dining room verb table for _____. There were so many of us that Grandpa had to get extra _____ from the _____. We all squeezed plural noun place in and _____ for Uncle Drew to bring the _____.

noun

verb food

It smelled _____! Once the food was on the _____, adjective noun

we _____ right in. Some of us ate more _____ than others verb adverb because we knew there was dessert. After dinner, we all had a _____ amount of pie or some _____. After dessert, we sat around the _____ dessert noun and _____ for the rest of the evening. That was our _____ verb adjective part of the holidays. Everyone was happy to be together for Christmas.

color me!